IN DANCE ATTIRE.

Charming Holiday Party Frock For the Small Girl.

OF LINGERIE AND LACE.

When the dancing class gives a cotillion the frock illustrated is just the thing for the small girl to wear. It's not too dressy, but is becoming and cheerful, and what is more important to mothers, it will be equally serviceable as a best costume all next summer.

The model is long waisted, and the embroidered plaited ruffle is joined to the lace and lawn inserted bodice in a pretty pointed effect. There is no sash, but the rose pink choux on the shoulder matches the bow worn in the hair.

Homemade Turban.

The new box turbans are quite within the reach of the woman who does her own millinery work. The frame is so easily covered that the task requires only taste in selecting the trimmings. The turban frame may be covered with satin, lace or velvet and needs but little trimming. An alger or some big roses made of the same material as the covering will do.

A Cleaning Precaution.

If you do not want to make rings on material cleaned with gasoline, naphtha or other cleansing fluids put blotting paper underneath or hold the fabric rather tightly over a thick Turkish towel or folded pads of cheesecloth or other soft material. If this is neglected the dirty fluid that soaks into the material fails to be absorbed and spreads badly.

Reversed.

Miss Bikely—So you have given up advocating woman's rights? Miss Passee—Yes; I now go in for women's lefts. "Women's lefts? What's that?" "Widowers."—Tit-Bits.

Oneth and Twoth.

Such vows we make, such vows we take
On January oneth;
Such things eschew, such things get through
On January oneth.

We swear to quit, we dare to quit
On January oneth;
We'll drink no more, we think—no more
On January oneth.

The pipe we'll quit, no pipe we'll hit
On January oneth;
All habits glad are habits bad
On January oneth.

But swearing off is wearing off
By January twoth.
And habits bad are habits glad
By January twoth.
